

Everlast Metals

ASL-100

The Everlast Metals ASL-100 is a concealed fastener roof system that offers the designer the classical look of a traditional standing seam panel and the high performance of an architectural system. This panel features a snap lock 1" seam height manufactured with optional minor ribs or striations, and its concealed clip to allow for fluid thermal movement.

Profile Options:

Available Product Options:

1. Tapered panels
2. Available in steel and aluminum

Features:

- 35-Year finish warranty for Fluropon®
- 40-Year finish warranty for Synergy™
- Minimum length of 4'
- Panel widths 13", 17", 21", custom
- Minimum slope requirement 3:12
- Watertight side lap
- Recommended for application over solid framing